June 2023

Solid Rock United Methodist Church • Warren, Indiana

Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Disaffiliation Update

Solid Rock's transition from the United Methodist Church to the Global Methodist Church is nearly complete. Required documents were submitted to the Indiana Conference of the UMC by the May 11 deadline. Disaffiliation will be officially approved by the Annual Conference, meeting June 8-10, and will be effective July 1, 2023.

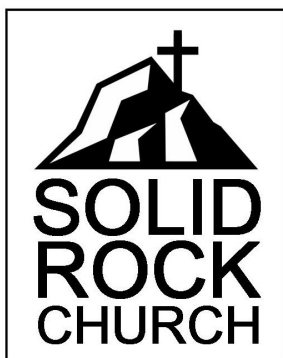

Notification was received on May 1 that Solid Rock's application to join the Global Methodist Church has been approved and will be in effect on July 1, 2023.

A committee reviewed Solid Rock's administrative structure and made recommendations to the Administrative Council, which accepted them at their May meeting. Only minor changes have been made. The revised structure will guide the Nominations Committee when they meet in late summer, and changes will be in effect for 2024.

Some signage around the church will be changing, as UMC designations are removed. For legal purposes, the name of the church will be Solid Rock Church of Warren, Inc. Incorporation under the new name took place on May 3.

Commonly we will refer to ourselves as Solid Rock Church. A rebranding effort is underway, including updated signage, a new website, and a renamed and refreshed newsletter. Newly branded shirts and other apparel are now available for purchase.

New Solid Rock Apparel!

We are excited to offer new Solid Rock Church apparel! There are three ways to order the apparel, online using the link found on the Solid Rock Facebook page, the link on the Solid Rock website, the link found in the email with the newsletter, or with the paper order form found at the back of the sanctuary. There are many options and colors to pick from!

Ordering will be open until Sunday, June 11th so that we can have the apparel by June 25th. We hope to be "rocking" our new apparel on our first Sunday as Solid Rock Church! Questions, see Jen Plummer, Teresa Kreigbaum, or Cindy Boxell.

You may also access the website at this address or scan the QR code.

Donate by check? Note this change

As part of Solid Rock's transition, the church has opened new accounts with the United Methodist Church designation removed. Going forward, checks should be payable to Solid Rock Church. Our bank will not accept deposits to the new account if your check contains UMC. Thank you for your attention to this change.

Where Do I Fit In? Explanation of the Gifts

Two concepts are involved in spiritual gifts. First, a spiritual gift to an individual is God's enablement for personal spiritual service (1 Cor. 12:11). Second, a spiritual gift to the church is a person uniquely equipped for the church's edification and maturation (Eph. 4:11-13). It should also be noted what is not meant by spiritual gifts. It does not mean a place of service. Some may suggest "he has a real gift for working in the slums. This, of course, is a wrong concept of spiritual gifts. Nor is a spiritual gift an age group ministry. Or some might say that "he has a real gift for working with senior highs." A spiritual gift is not the same as a natural talent; there may be a relationship, but a natural talent is an ability that a person may have from birth and develop, whereas a spiritual gift is given supernaturally by God at the moment of conversion. Natural talents and gifts may be contrasted thus:

COMPARISON OF NATURAL AND SPIRITUAL ABILITIES

Source:

- Natural Talents: From God through parents
- Spiritual Gifts: From God independent of parents

Possessed:

- Natural Talents: From birth
- Spiritual Gifts: Probably from conversion

Our Vision: Sharing and experiencing the life-giving message of Jesus, to restore wholeness and build an intentional community of hope, relationship, and purpose for everyone.

Global Methodist Church Logo

The Global Methodist Church's logo brings together in its three circles the one God – the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit – who alone we worship. The circles intersect at the center of the cross of Jesus Christ, the symbol of our deliverance from our slavery to sin and fear of death. The outer circumference of the rings represents the globe. As a whole, the logo communicates God's sending of the church into the world. The sky blue color reminds us that even though Global Methodists live all around the world, they are all united together in God's great creation.

Books from a friend

A friend of Solid Rock is downsizing as she moves and has offered books from her amazing library to the people of Solid Rock. The books will be available on the table in the back of the sanctuary. Help yourself and happy reading!

Thank you, friend, and may God richly bless you as you move to your new home.

Divine dance

Using the fancy word perichoresis (from Greek for “around” and “contain”) may win you admiring — or strange! — looks. But since the 7th century, people have used it as a beautiful image of the Persons of the Holy Trinity containing and permeating one another. A more familiar word, choreography, has led to recent understandings of perichoresis as the divine and eternal dance of love.

Picture three dancers' synchronized yet independent movements. Weaving gracefully in and out, each seems to know what the others will do next. They may touch lightly but don't constrain or impede one another. Though distinct individuals, they move so fluidly together that they are, in a sense, one entity.

Even more profound: Jesus invites us into the dance! “If you love me,” he says, “you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth. ... I will come to you. ... I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you” (John 14:15-20, ESV). As the actions of Jesus, the Father and the Spirit interweave in Scripture and in the world, may our lives too be drawn into the loving dance.

Just like Dad

At the beginning of his ministry career, Jerry Steen supplemented his income by mixing animal feed. When his two young boys greeted him at home, they laughed at his dusty appearance before he headed to the shower.

“I didn't think too much of this until I was washing my car and saw my older son doing something very strange,” Steen recalls. “He was picking up the gravel and stones in our drive and rubbing them into his pants.”

Curious, the father asked what the boy was doing. “I want to be dusty like you, Dad!” his son replied.

For Steen, that was an eye-opener. “I realized that if a child would look up to his father for being dusty and want to copy his father,” he says, “a child could look up to his father and follow him for anything.” What traits and qualities are you modeling and passing on — to your own kids and to anyone else who looks up to you?

Jokes for Dad

There was an old country church in a little village. The pastor of the church noticed the outside of the building was starting to look a little shabby and in bad need of a fresh coat of paint. He went and bought three gallons of paint and started to paint the church. The front looked great, but he still had three sides to go and had already used up one gallon of paint.

Being a thrifty person, he decided to thin down the other two gallons. When he finished and walked around to admire the church, it looked great. That night it rained very, very hard. In the morning he went out to see how the church looked. The front of the building still looked great, but the other three sides had washed off almost completely.

The pastor looked up to the sky in frustration and cried out, “Now what?”

From heaven came a voice, “Repaint, and thin no more!”

A minister was wondering whether there were any golf courses in heaven and started praying about it. One day he received an answer direct from heaven. The messenger told him, “Yes, there are many fine golf courses in heaven. The greens are in excellent condition and the weather is always perfect. Not only that, you get to play with the nicest people.”

“Thank you, that is great news,” replied the minister.

The messenger answered, “Yes, it is, and we have you down for a foursome next Saturday.”

Teacher: Why didn't Noah do much fishing when he was on the ark?

Student: He only had two worms!

With the attendance of organized churches dwindling for various reasons, there also is a growing need for people to assist those who are seeking a church home to find what their needs require. The church is more than just a place to hear a sermon or to attend Sunday School; it's a gathering place for people to use their gifts and talents for the glory of God and to bless those in the church body and the community. So, what are gifts and talents and how do we develop them to empower us to be used by God? Does it mean we have to go to seminary or something else?

Look at the reference from The Moody Handbook of Theology. I chose this because it gives us good insight into gifts and talents. We have various gifts and talents granted to us by God. These gifts are to be utilized to draw others to God, to meet the needs of others, and to assist in helping others to develop and use their gifts. This is done by mentoring, discipleship, and relationships with God and others.

It seems to me a perplexing question I hear often from others is, "What are my gifts and where do I fit in with God's plan?" People question where they fit in with God's plan, where they use their gifts and talents, and they even question what gifts they might have. They question this because they see what their faults are and feel inadequate or unworthy to be used by God for something great. In both my pastoral ministry and mental health work, I have worked with countless individuals who struggle with God accepting them, healing them, forgiving them, and/or using them to help others. They only see themselves as broken or flawed. This hinders their ability to feel "good enough" to be used by God. They don't know where they might fit in without feeling the "judgment" of others when it's their own self-judgment that prohibits their participation in serving God in a church setting. If we were able to work with these individuals, we could help them to see that we

ALL are broken and have failed numerous times, yet God continues to not only forgive us but also calls us to utilize the gifts and talents we have for the greater good.

The question I have for you, the readers and the church members, is Where do you want to fit in? People will try to "fit" you in places that might not be your area of passion. Passion is that drive that makes us feel that I need to do this because... If you're not passionate about what you believe your calling is, you might be hindered in developing a passion for serving. This doesn't include the testing of gifts and talents; this is for those that you have already discovered or know for a fact are the gifts and talents you have. Sometimes, we discover our gifts by accident: we are thrust into a situation and when we see our efforts work and we feel good about the outcome, we begin to believe that we can make a positive difference in the lives of others. This often becomes a passion for us and we actually find a place to fit in the circle of life as we know it.

What are my gifts and talents? Only you and God can define this. Yes, others can assist you in identifying them, but only God can empower you with these gifts. Your gifts may include the following (but are not limited to):

- Preaching and teaching
- Discernment
- Hospitality
- Servanthood
- Compassion
- Healing (various aspects that include physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual healing)
- Administration

And so much more. Please note that all of these can be inside or outside the church setting. Many can develop passions to serve outside the church setting. Coming to church allows us and others to know what is available to the body and where we can network the gifts we have to utilize them to bless others.

Where do you fit in? Wherever you want to fit in. It is my hope that God directs you to share your gifts and talents where you feel comfortable and called to be. If you are wondering how to fit in, feel free to contact me at pastorjohn@solidrockwarren.org.

Sharing the load

In 1969 the Hollies released "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother." Do you know the story behind that song title?

Fifty years earlier in Omaha, Nebraska, a boy with polio was abandoned at Father Flanagan's Home for Boys, predecessor to the Boys Town organization. Soon several older residents started carrying young Howard — with his heavy leg braces — especially up stairs. Father Flanagan once saw an older boy, Reuben, doing this and asked if it was hard work. Reuben replied, "He ain't heavy, Father. He's my brother." Years later, these words and the image of one person carrying another became the Boys Town brand.

All of us have been "carried" at some point, and we've likely "carried" someone else. The Hollies' song declares: "His welfare is my concern." Jesus said it this way: "Love your neighbor as yourself." The load isn't too heavy to bear because Jesus himself is always carrying us.

Christian symbol

OPEN BOOK — A book symbolizes the Bible, the written Word of God. When shown open, a book represents truth or revelation. Apostles and saints are often pictured holding an open book, understood as the New Testament writings of the early Christian church.

Love aces the test

Author Adele Calhoun describes life as “our ‘open-book’ test on love.” How can we ace it? In Invitations From God, she points out that daily decisions are the make-or-break factors: “Day in and day out as we plan, work, produce, commute and relate, we make life-altering choices to either love or neglect others.”

For another study guide, reflect on St. Augustine’s timeless words: “What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of [people]. That is what love looks like.”

Dear Father,

Today I thank you for my church. While some might think of doors and windows, I’m praising you for spirits and hearts. The people whose lives you’ve intersected are remarkable through your grace. I can’t praise you enough for the unique way You’ve blended the talents of individuals into beautiful masterpieces of joy. May we love one another to the fullest and be evidence of your ultimate love to advance the work of your kingdom. Amen.

Solid Rock Daily Prayer Card for June 2023

Prayer is the greatest, simplest privilege of our lives as believers.

Thank you for continuing to pray for Solid Rock. Following are some special requests:

- Father God, we ask for Your hand to hold us when we desire to stray away from Your grace. May we forever seek Your face each morning and rest in Your arms in the evening. And with the time in between, may we serve You as You call us to change the world around us through Your leading. Help us to be still and to hear Your voice. In Thy Name we pray, Amen.
- Sweet Jesus, we thank You for Your Lordship and the example of Your servanthood. May we learn from You how we should serve and bring hope to others. Grant us the ability to heal, grant forgiveness, bless, and encourage others in the same ways You have done for each of us. May other see You evidenced in our lives. In Your Name we pray, Amen!
- Holy Spirit, move amongst us and let Your Spirit empower us to be like the disciples in the Book of Acts; where You reach the masses with Your power. Help us to share that power with others so that they might know You and know the Father and Son. Thank You for Your leading. In the Names of the Father, Son, and Holy spirit, Amen.
- Holy Father, We praise Your Name. From You, all blessings flow. We praise Your holy Name and exalt You to the nations. Blessed be Your Name. You are our breath and our life. May we live for You and You alone. Praise be to You. Amen.
